Current Revision Summary (if applicable):

The following change(s) are effective:

.0110 (a) Good Time – Good time is sentence reduction credit awarded, at the rate of one day deducted for each day served in custody for good behavior and/or without an infraction of inmate conduct rules, to eligible inmates sentenced for crimes committed prior to October 1, 1994. Inmates convicted of Driving While Impaired, regardless of offense date, will be eligible for good time on that sentence only. For inmates sentenced under the Fair Sentencing Act, Good Time reduces the time required to be served for unconditional release from prison.

.0111 This section applies to inmates sentenced as felons for crimes they committed prior to October 1, 1994 and inmates convicted of Driving While Impaired, regardless of offense date.
