Supersedes Revision Dated: July 20, 2010

Current Revision Summary (if applicable):

.1203 (g) now reads: Region Directors will conduct a complete inspection of each facility within their region annually. A designated inspection committee will assist and review all aspects of the facilities' functional operations. The Region Director will report findings through the chain of command to the Director of Prisons. The report will also include recommendations regarding corrective action necessary to insure maintenance of order, security, safety, and health standards at facilities in their region. In addition to comprehensive annual reviews, the Region Director and Operations Manager will jointly inspect each facility at least semi-annually to review housing units and general operations.
