Morrison Correctional Institution has new administrator

HOFFMAN — Peter R. Buchholtz is the new administrator at the Department of Public Safety's Morrison Correctional Institution, a prison in the Division of Adult Correction.

Morrison Correctional houses approximately 830 medium and minimum custoday inmates. Officers and other staff members total 410.

Buchholtz, who had been assistant superintendent for custody and operations at Hoke Correctional Institution since June 2005, began his career as a correctional officer in K-9 Operations in 1992. He succeeds J.C. Huggins, who was promoted to director of Adult Correction's South Central Region for prisons.

Buchholtz earned a bachelor of applied science degree in criminal justice psychology from Campbell University. He also earned an Advanced Correctional Certificate and completed the department's Correctional Leadership Development Program.
